DEFENDANT COAST CUTLERY'S MOTION TO COMPEL RESPONSES TO INTERROGATORIES AND PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO FED. R. CIV. P. 37(a)(2)

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(a)(2), defendant Coast Cutlery moves the Court for an order compelling plaintiff Emissive Energy Corporation to respond to the following interrogatories and document production requests within 10 days of hearing on this Motion:

INTRODUCTION

This lawsuit arises out of plaintiff's mistaken belief that Coast Cutlery, a family-owned business located in Portland, Oregon, intentionally breached a settlement agreement between the parties concerning an LED flashlight formerly sold by Coast Cutlery.

The First Lawsuit and the Settlement Agreement.

In late 2002, plaintiff Emissive Energy Corporation sued Coast Cutlery for false advertising, patent infringement and
